

Critique & Humanism, vol. 44, No. 2/2015

Theme of the Issue:
Michel Foucault: Ways of Use.
 Forms of Governmentality

Lea Vajsova and Momchil Hristov
Editorial	5
Disciplinary Knowledge and Abnormality
Gergana Mircheva
From Monstrosity to Eccentricity: Uses of the “Moral Insanity” Concept in Bulgaria from the End of the 19 th Century to World War II	7
Martin Kanoushev
Sociological Essay on the Concept “Dangerous Recidivist” or How is the Pathologic Criminal Possible	27
Biopolitics and Governmentality
Ina Dimitrova
The Citizen Deserving Parenthood: Investing and Rendering One’s Due	55
Maria Martinova
Practices of Parenthood and Governmentality: Naturality, Femininity and Self-Sufficiency of the Contemporary Mother	71
Veronika Dimitrova
The Institutionalization of the Role of the Hygienist-Doctor in Bulgaria (1878-1939)	91
Momchil Hristov
An Outline of a Contribution to the Elaboration of a Methodology for the Study of Techniques of Biopolitical Governing in Socialist Regimes and Societies	103
Foucault beyond Foucault (a Collection of Interviews by Momchil Hristov and Lea Vajsova)
Interview with Vladimir Gradev	127
Interview with Andrey Bundjulov	137
Interview with Deyan Deyanov	153
Interview with Daniela Koleva and Alexander Kiossev	175

Book Reviews

Deyan Deyanov
Inter-Meditations	193
Rossitza Guentcheva
The Rashomon Effect of Remembering Communism	211
Yani Milchakov
Old Quarrels over Reading and a Powerful New Book about It	219
Contents of vol. 44, no. 1 and no. 2/2015	225
Authors	228
Abstracts in English	232